A daring sleuth—a charming maid—
A sinking ship—a desert island

WILLIAM FARNUM

IN

"The Scuttlers"

He allows himself to be shanghaied so that he may get the evidence that will convict a gang of ship scuttlers. About the first thing that happens after getting on board ship is a battle with the first mate. After that it's touch and go—fast and furious to the finish, and the ship slowly sinking. We believe that you'll like this thrilling story of the sea wherein Big Bill Farnum takes the part of a two-fisted sailor of the briny deep.
